MARK THESE FACTS!

The Testimony of the Whole World.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment behind the ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your Pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail, for Chills and Fever."

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

For Cutaneous Disorders.

And all eruptions of the skin, this Ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

Invariably cure the following diseases

Disorder of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water, or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills, they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action, they are wonderfully efficacious in case of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the liver and stomach.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best known in the world for the following diseases: Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blotches on the Skin, Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula or King's Evil, Sore Throats, Stone and Gravel, Tic-Douloureux, Tumors, Ulcers, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from any cause, etc.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, as agent for the United States, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

 Sold at the manufactory of PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY & Co., New York, and by all respectable druggists and dealers in medicine throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

Office, 112 Liberty Street, New York.

Bangor Water Board.

Section 17, of an ordnance for the protection and regulation of the Bangor Water Works as follows

The regular rates for Street and Garden Sprinklers and for Yard and Lawn Hydrants, will be based upon their use for one hour per day for ninety days in the year, and they are not to be used to the injury or inconvenience of persons passing in the streets, and only at such hours as the Water Board may direct.

Yard and Garden Hydrants must not be converted into jets, and neither the sprinklers nor Hydrants are to be used for wetting other premises than the ones defined in the application, without permission of said Board, and payment for said additional use. The size of the stream permitted shall, in all cases be fixed by the Board, and the increasing of the size by the user, shall be sufficient cause for the turning off of the water.

The Board may designate the hours during which the sprinklers and hydrants may be used. Their use, while a fire is raging, is positively forbidden, except in case of danger to the premises from fire.

In accordance with said Section the Water Board have fixed on the following hours in which sprinklers may be used for sprinkling streets. In the morning, between the hours of six and eight o'clock; in the evening between the hours of five and seven o'clock.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System.

Its Medical Properties Are

ALTERATIVE, TONIC, SOLVENT AND DIURETIC.

VEGETINE is made exclusively from the juices of carefully selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Scrofulous Humor, Tumors, Cancer, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases, Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout and Spinal Complaints can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scald Head and Ringworm VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints, Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cures ulceration and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable Blood Purifier yet placed before the public.

UNQUALIFIED APPRECIATION.

BOSTON, Nov. 18, 1875.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—During the past five years I have had ample opportunity to judge of the merit of VEGETINE. My wife has used it for complaints attending a lady of delicate health, with more beneficial results than anything else which she ever tried. I have given it to my children under almost every circumstance attending a large family, and always with marked benefit. I have taken it myself with such great benefit that I cannot find words to express my unqualified appreciation of its goodness.

While performing my duties as a Police Officer in this city, it has been my lot to fall in with a great deal of sickness. I unhesitatingly recommend Vegetine, and I never knew of a case where it did not prove all that was claimed for it. Particularly in cases of a debilitated or impoverished state of the blood its effects are really wonderful; and for all complaints arising from an impure state of the blood it appears to work like a charm, and I do not believe there are any circumstances under which Vegetine can be used with injurious results, and it will always afford me pleasure to give any further information as to what I know about Vegetine.

CANNOT BE EXCELLED.

CHARLESTOWN, March 19, 1869.

H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir: This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and I think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic Affections it cannot be excelled; and as a Blood Purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell St.

A Source of Great Anxiety.

CHILDREN TEETHING

MRS. WINSLOW'S

SOOTHING SYRUP,

For Children Teething.

greatly facilitates the process of teething by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is

Sure to Regulate the Bowels.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and CAN SAY IN CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

Thousands of Cases.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic.

We believe it the BEST AND SUREST REMEDY IN THE WORLD, in all cases of DYSENTERY AND DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child suffering from any of the foregoing complaints—DO NOT LET YOUR PREJUDICES, NOR THE PREJUDICES OF OTHERS, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

THE DEMOCRATIC PROGRAMME.

The failure of the Oregon villainy and the repudiation of the 22d Joint Rule by the Senate with the concurrence of leading Democrats in that body, has produced a great demoralization among Tilden's Washington fuglers, and on the adjournment Friday a number of them rushed to New York for a Sunday conference with the great "Reformer." As their main reliance had been the assertion of a right on the part of the two Houses to control the counting of the votes, the collapse of the Joint Rules and the certainty that the President of the Senate will exercise the Constitutional power of opening and counting the votes, have ruined the original programme, and the Tilden leaders have hastened to the head-centre to ask new instructions. It is understood that Tilden is trying to concoct some plan for the emergency, but very few believe that it will consist of much besides threats and buncombe. The Boston Journal's Washington special says:

It is difficult to discover the Democratic programme. There does not as yet appear to be one; Democrats say that it will be known within ten days. Those who talk the loudest declare that the House will withdraw from the Senate; that it will pass a resolution declaring that there has been no election by the Electoral College; that it will elect Tilden, and that Tilden will issue a proclamation to the army and navy, to the Executive Departments, and to the people, demanding recognition and commanding obedience. Beyond this the most radical Democratic committee scarcely ventures to predict what will follow. The present Democratic policy appears to be to play a game of bluff, to talk loudly, to create an uneasy sentiment among the public, in order to force a compromise from the Republicans. The address to the country contemplated by the Democratic committee is believed to be a part of the plan to intimidate the public sentiment of the North, in order that there may be a reaction which which would influence the Republican Senators.

We venture to predict that the sentiment of the North, to use a current phrase, "won't scare worth a cent." The bluster and brow-beating game was thoroughly played out in the days preceding rebellion and it would prove even less profitable now than then. National "bull-dozing" won't do, Mr. Tilden!

THE LOUISIANA CANVASS.

In conversation, Messrs. Wells and Anderson say that the law creating the Returning Board has been closely adhered to in every particular. They are willing the country should know all the facts. The boxes in no parish have been attacked, except where protest by supervisors accompanied the original returns, and where testimony was taken and cross-examination had. They think the Congressional Committee will sustain the action of the board after they have dug down and got all the facts.—Dr. Redfield's despatch.

Hon. B. F. Wade made some pertinent remarks before the Ohio Electoral College on Wednesday. The main points of his speech, as given in the Columbus Journal were as follows: "The nation is in a more critical condition now than it has been at any time since, or, perhaps, before the war. If Tilden has a majority of the electoral vote, no difference how much we may regret it, we must stand by it. If Hayes gets the electoral vote, he must be inaugurated. Anything short of this would be a base retreat from what we know to be our duty, and he would advise every man to stand squarely up to this. The corruption of the ballot box is more dangerous than war, and if that comes we know where the American people, or at least the Republicans, will stand. The Speaker had considerable knowledge of Gen. Grant, and he believed that he (Grant) never did a political act but what he had done conscientiously, and for what he thought the best interests of the country. He may have erred in some things, as all men must, but President Grant will at all times stand up for the rights of the people. The cheering news we receive from all parts of the country fills our hearts with the hope that righteousness, although trampled under foot in some places, will yet triumph."

The Herald's correspondent says that Representative Scott Lord of New York, "speaking for the more thoughtful element of the Democratic side of the House, said the qualifying of the Democratic Oregon Elector Cronin found no favor in his eyes. He did not wish to secure success by any questionable process. He wanted to see Mr Tilden elected by the prevalence of right. He thought the Cronin matter marred the moral beauty of the Democratic argument in this whole controversy." The "moral beauty" of the Democratic campaign is a facetious suggestion, but as a matter of fact the average Democratic politician sees more "beauty" in the Oregon rascality than in any less outrageous trick of the canvass.

While Gov. Brogden, the Republican executive of North Carolina, did not feel authorized to count out a Democratic elector on the ground that said elector was an unpardoned, perjured ex-rebel, Gov. Grover eagerly violates the express laws of his State to reject an ex-postmaster elector. And the Democratic organs which justify Grover claim that the Governor of Missouri was also right in acting directly the reverse in the case of an elector disqualified by the 14th Amendment. The spokesmen and organs of the Democracy are demonstrating more plainly than ever that there is absolutely no honesty in the party.

The early cablegram from London stating that the news of Tilden's supposed election had no depressing influence upon American securities is false. M. D. Conway has written the Cincinnati Commercial that "On the first tidings of Tilden's election American securities fell on 'Change, and the old Confederate bonds were quoted, for the first time since the fall of Richmond."

THE VOTE ON THE JOINT RULES. The question whether the joint rules have been repealed by the vote of the Senate alone was decided in the Senate on Friday when the decision of the chair, that the joint rules have been repealed, was sustained by a vote of 50 to 4, as follows (Democrats in italics):

YEAS—Messrs. Alcorn, Allison, Anthony, Bayard, Blaine, Booth, Boutwell, Bruce, Burnside, Cameron of Wisconsin, Chaffee, Christiancy, Clayton, Cockrell, Conkling, Conover, Cooper, Cragin, Dawes, Dennis, Dorsey, Eaton, Frelinghuysen, Edmunds, Hamilton, Harvey, Hitchcock, Howe, Ingalls, Kernan, Logan, McCreery, McDonald, McMillan, Mitchell, Morrill, Morton, Paddock, Patterson, Price, Randolph, Sargent, Sherman, Spencer, Teller, Wadleigh, Wallace, West, Windom, Wright—50.

NAYS—Messrs. Maxey, Merrimon, White, Withers—4.

THE SOUTHERN REPUBLICANS.

[From the N. Y. Times.

Gov. Chamberlain's address to the Legislature of South Carolina has a profounder meaning, a much wider significance, than usually attaches to inauguration speeches. It touches a chord that will vibrate throughout the land. Here is a man who for three months past has carried his life in his hand in the service of the race to whom the war gave freedom, and as the champion of principles which imparted to that war its life and glory. Measured by any worldly standard, the office he holds is unworthy of consideration. The income it yields barely pays for the labor it entails. For the responsibilities connected with it—the incessant struggle with an arrogant and unscrupulous class which it involves—there can be no equivalent. Gov. Chamberlain has but to appeal to his own experience to adduce all the evidence which reasonable men can require with regard to the dangers and difficulties that attend the career of a conspicuous Republican in the Southern States. We of the North know nothing of the trials he must endure, of the perils he perpetually incurs, of the hate and scorn and insult with which he is assailed at every step. We feel aggrieved if Democratic ruffians disturb the harmony of a meeting, and attempt to frustrate its purpose. To anything beyond this we are unaccustomed. And in the fullness of our reliance upon the American love of fair play and right, we imagine that there is exaggeration in the reports of intimidation and outrage and risk which come from the South. Gov. Chamberlain is one of many witnesses to the fact that in the reports that have found their way into print only a fraction of the truth has been told. A complete and literal record would be incredible. "I denounce the conduct of the recent election on the part of our political opponents in this State as a vast, brutal outrage," is what Gov. Chamberlain says of South Carolina. "Fraud, proscription, intimidation, all forms of violence, ranging through all its degrees up to wanton murder, were its effective methods." Of the vast mass of crime that was perpetrated we know next to nothing. Its most hideous features are uncovered only by accident, and the hapless victims are not known beyond their immediate friends. The worst aspect of the case, moreover, is derived from the standing and pretensions of those who are accountable for the crimes. Their authors are not outlaws. They profess to represent the wealth, the intelligence, the character of the State; they are organized and disciplined under members of the "first families," and they recognize as their commander a man whom we are asked to consider a pink of chivalry, a high-minded, and courteous gentleman! These are the men, who, after shooting down and torturing negroes whose sole crime was their Republicanism, threaten with assassination the Republican leader in the State solely because he is the chief obstacle to their conspiracy.

In many particulars South Carolina stands alone. Neither in Louisiana nor Florida do Democratic aggression and usurpation justify the same immediate anxiety. The difference, however, is simply of degree. The nature and objects of the conspiracy are identical in the three States. In all of them the determination of the Democracy is to destroy the results of reconstruction, and to transfer the governing power from the majority to the minority. There is too, a uniformity of method as well as purpose. The last few weeks have supplied glimpses of tragedies enacted in the woods of Louisiana that should make the blood of every humane man boil with indignation. We may be sure that the system on which the Democrats rely for ultimate success will not be abandoned. Partial exposure has overtaken them, but there will be no punishment. The murderers will go unhanged; the perpetrators of other outrages will go unwhipped of justice.

It is clear that unless the North arouse itself and resolve that this condition of things shall end, the success of the Democracy in all the Southern States, as a consequence of terrorism and crime, is merely a question of time. There are limits to the endurance of the struggling freedmen.—Leaders like Chamberlain cannot be reproduced indefinitely. They must be sustained, or they will either disappear or make make the best bargains they can for themselves and their families. The cause they suffer for is more the country's than their own. It is inseparably associated with the Republican party, whose usefulness and success are contingent upon the manner in which this cause is upheld. Emancipation and enfranchisement will be mockeries, if, after all, through Republican supineness, the Democrats shall be enabled to revive the degradation of slavery without its responsibilities, and to convert the colored vote into a means of consolidating their own power. Well may Gov. Chamberlain express astonishment at the fact that there are Republicans who "permit the errors which have attended the first effort of this race in self-government to chill their sympathies," and render them indifferent to the responsibilities growing out of the new organization of affairs in the South. The outcry about Federal interference in South Carolina has revealed to some extent this strange obliquity of the moral vision of many Northern Republicans. They shake their wise heads because a handful of soldiers was employed in curbing lawless violence. Of the lawlessness and violence these over-righteous souls take no cognizance. So it is in reference to the struggling and almost abandoned Southern Republicans. They suffer for the sins of a few rascally "carpet-baggers." Because the early stages of self-government in States like South Carolina were marked by errors on the part of the newly-enfranchised race, and by wrong-doing on the part of Northern whites who preyed upon the credulity of the colored people, the latter are left to struggle on as best they can, and to master in their own way difficulties that would try the best-educated constituencies. The contest cannot last long on these terms. The Southern Republicans must have the support of the Republican North or they will be a negative quantity in the next Presidential election.

The N. Y. Evening Post says: "There is no pretence on the part of any influential Democrat that the Oregon vote belongs to Tilden, or that it ought to be counted for anybody but Hayes. Mr. Scott Lord, for example, is reported to say that 'the qualifying of the Democratic Oregon Elector Cronin found no favor in his eyes.' Mr. Hiester Clymer is reported to say that he 'did not wish to claim that Cronin was elected an elector.' The case is so clear upon its merits that there can be no difference of opinion about it among respectable persons anywhere." The Post says truly, but there are some disreputable persons and papers which champion the Oregon rascality as they would any crime perpetrated in the name of Democracy.

Senator John B. Gordon of Georgia, has published a column letter devoted to the inaugural address of Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina.

PRESIDENT GRANT'S VIEWS.

HIS REPORT OF THE HEWITT INTERVIEW—HIS OPINION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA SITUATION—WADE HAMPTON'S IMPERTINENCE—THE PRESIDENT GIVES HIS INTERVIEWERS SOME CANDID REMARKS.

President Grant, in the course of a long and free conversation Saturday with a representative of the Associated Press concerning political affairs, said that recently he received a despatch from Governor Chamberlain, informing him that it was currently reported in Columbia that the President had, in his interview with Representative Hewitt of New York, a week ago, remarked that when 63 members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, holding certificates from the Secretary of State, should convene, he would recognize them as the legal House. The President in reply to Governor Chamberlain, telegraphed him that, if Mr. Hewitt had sent or authorized the sending of such a despatch, it was untrue that he had so expressed himself. The President says that he had a free and agreeable conversation with Mr. Hewitt, in which he said that in his judgment not less than sixty-three members were necessary to organize the House, transact business, and to determine the qualification of its members. This was the view he then held, but it was merely a private opinion, and he might have been wrong. The President on that occasion further expressed his views with regard to the grounds on which each wing of the members of the House respectively claimed their seats, and in this connection the President produced a note addressed to him by Mr. Hewitt, dated House of Representatives, Dec. 6th, as follows:

To the President:—I have received a reliable telegram from Columbia, stating that the sixty-third member holding a certificate from the Secretary of State has been sworn into the House presided over by Speaker Wallace, which is therefore organized in accordance with the requirements of law, as stated by you.

On the same day Mr. Hewitt sent him another note as follows:

I have just received a later despatch saying that the Supreme Court of South Carolina has pronounced its judgment, and declared the House presided over by W. H. Wallace to be the legally constituted House of Representatives, and that Mackey is a private person and not Speaker, or in any respect an officer of the legislative body.

RANDOLPH AND HEWITT—HAMPTON'S IMPERTINENCE.

The President said, with reference to these notes, that he did not think, after his free conversation with Mr. Hewitt, that the latter would make use of what he said for the purpose of defeating the party which the President represented. When Mr. Hewitt and Senator Randolph called on him several days ago he informed Mr. Hewitt of the contents of the despatch he received from Governor Chamberlain and the reply he made to it, and intimated to Mr. Hewitt that he thought his confidence had been abused. Mr. Hewitt denied that he sent to Columbia such a despatch as that mentioned. The President then repeated to Mr. Hewitt the substance of the despatch in reply to Governor Chamberlain as to the report current in Columbia. Senator Randolph then produced a despatch from General Hampton, in which he said that if the President would recognize the Wallace house and withdraw the troops he would do everything possible to preserve the peace.

The President remarked that he looked upon this as a piece of impertinence on the part of General Hampton in telling him what to do; that the sending of troops to South Carolina was in obedience to the call of Governor Chamberlain, the danger there being too formidable for the authorities of the State to control; that the organized rifle clubs, representing Gen'l Hampton, were in the city of Columbia, and that if the Federal troops should be withdrawn there would be peace, but it would be the peace of death.

Senator Randolph explained that the President should not think that General Hampton sought to advise him what to do, and that the despatch which was shown to the President was a reply to one that Senator Randolph had sent to General Hampton.

GEN. RUGER'S ORDERS.

In response to a question, the President said he never instructed General Ruger to place troops at the State House, but that was the way General Ruger understood his orders. The troops were in South Carolina, the President repeated, in obedience to the call of Governor Chamberlain to suppress an insurrection too formidable for him to control, and had it not been for these troops Governor Chamberlain would be a refugee to-day, as Governor Ames now is from Mississippi.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

The President said, in the course of conversation, that he looked on the situation as embarrassing, to say the least. A good deal of bad temper had been shown on the Democratic side, and many were acting unreasonably; they seem to fear that he was doing what was right, and were abusing everybody for not yielding to their views. This struck him as strange, considering the scenes through which we have passed. Governor Hayes represented the party that carried in the late election all but four of the States that furnished means for the suppression of the rebellion, and Gov. Tilden carried all but three of those which sought to destroy the Union.

ELECTION FRAUDS.

In allusion to frauds, he said that the majority for Tilden in the city of New York was larger than his total majority in the entire State, and in which city much crime is perpetrated, and where there is a large number of men who have little interest either in the State or in the Republic. In the same way frauds were committed in the States of New Jersey and Connecticut. While it was true that those in the southern States, who gave Governor Tilden a majority, were voters, many of them voted more than once, but nobody claimed that Tilden did not carry such States. The same party that perpetrated frauds in the southern States for Tilden complain of frauds in Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina, but if there had been no frauds in Mississippi, North Carolina and Arkansas, those States would have gone for Hayes and Wheeler.

THE USE OF TROOPS AT THE SOUTH.

The President justified the exclusion of Laurens and Edgefield counties from the South Carolina returns on the ground that Georgians had voted in them frequently, and cast more votes than there were voters, for the Democrats. Much had been said about the use of troops, but considering the number of lives sacrificed in the many political murders in the South, it was necessary to afford the requisite protection. The President thought that all was quiet now in the South, and so far as he could he would protect every one from violence. All the steps taken to this end had been duly considered.

NORTHERN DOUGHFACES.

The President, in reply to a remark that it seemed that the Democrats had abandoned the idea of impeaching him, said that he would advise them not to attempt it, for he might bring out evidence which they would not like to see spread on the record. He would rather trust the rebels than their Northern allies, and had tried to say as much in his annual message. He did not receive all the reports from the departments in time, and therefore was obliged to leave out of his message many subjects to which otherwise he would have referred. He said, in response to a question that he would answer the House resolution and inform them why he sent troops to the South.

HE WILL MAINTAIN PEACE AT ALL HAZARDS.

Among other things the President said, in response to inquiries, that there were now 600 or 800 troops in Washington, and if there should be any necessity for more he would order them hither. We should have peace, if we have to fight for it.

Some days he received five or six letters threatening assassination, but he paid no attention to them. A crazy man once followed him six months threatening to take his life, and this person was, he believed, placed in the insane asylum. When he first came to the Executive Mansion he found a military guard there, but he immediately caused it to be withdrawn and sent into the barracks. The President, referring to the political complications, said he had an abiding faith in the people; as we have had one rebellion, he did not believe the people were anxious for another, and thought there would be some way out of our present difficulties.

MAINE NEWS.

Another Maine Vessel Wrecked.

THE CAPTAIN AND FAMILY AND MATE DROWNED.

Wreck of a Thomaston Schooner.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. Schooner Harry Elliot, of Thomaston, Me., Capt. Butler, bound for Providence with salt, was driven ashore on Long Island Saturday and the captain, his wife and child and the mate were swept overboard and drowned, notwithstanding a "boatswain's chair" had been rigged and was about to be put into operation to rescue them. The vessel is a complete wreck.

Verdict Against a Railroad.

In the U. S. Court to-day judgment for $5,000 and costs was rendered against the Grand Trunk Railway Co. in favor of the administrator of Jesse W. Whitehouse, who was killed at North Yarmouth a year ago.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS, Second Session

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.

A bill was passed appropriating $21,000 to defray the expenses of special committees of the House to investigate the recent elections in South Carolina, Florida and Louisiana, with an amendment appropriating $50,000 to defray expenses of the Committee on Elections of the Senate in making investigation under the Edmunds resolution.

Mr. Bogy presented a report of the Democratic Committee which attended sessions of the Louisiana Returning Board and moved it be printed, which was finally agreed to.

Mr. Mitchell, from the Elections Committee, reported favorably on a resolution authorizing investigation as to the eligibility of Watts, the Oregon Elector. It went over until to-morrow.

Mr. Cameron introduced a bill to provide for redemption of greenbacks. Referred.

Mr. Bayard submitted a resolution directing the Attorney-General to inform the Senate as to the number of Deputy Marshals employed throughout the United States in connection with the election held in November last with particulars.

Mr. Edmunds desired to offer an amendment and the resolution was laid over until to-morrow.

At his request, Mr Boutwell was excused from serving on the Committee on Privileges and Elections owing to his labors on the silver commission.

Mr. Sherman presented a petition of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston, asking for the removal of his political disabilities. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

The Senate resumed consideration of unfinished business, being the joint resolution of Edmunds proposing an amendment to the Constitution, providing that the Electoral vote be counted by the Supreme Court.

An amendment proposed by the Judiciary Committee that Electors vote viva voce, instead of by ballot was agreed to.

Mr. Morton opposed the clause providing that the court shall in discharge of its duty disregard errors of form and be governed by the substantial right of the matter. He argued that this clause would give to the Supreme Court a boundless jurisdiction. It would authorize that body to do almost everything, perhaps to go and count the votes in the State of Vermont. Such a jurisdiction should not be conferred upon any tribunal, as it was dangerous.

Mr. Edmunds said the object of the clause was not to authorize the court to exercise boundless jurisdiction or to go anywhere to count votes of citizens, but it was to authorize the Court to do exactly what all courts do in matters where they are called upon to decide and that was to disregard form and decide upon the substantial right of the matter. Mr. Edmunds proceeded at length explaining the provisions of the Amendment and strongly advocating it.

Mr. Morton said he was sorry this debate was thrust on the Senate at this time, as he had not carefully considered the proposed amendment, though he had studied the general subject for years past. The Senate should be very sure the proposition now before it was a true and proper one and one under which the country could prosper and live for all time. Should this proposition be adopted, it was very certain none other would be adopted for many years. There were a number of fatal objections to this amendment. It proposed to transfer the count of the Electoral vote to the Supreme Court, which would make that tribunal a political body. It would make that court the grand Returning Board of the country and its motives would always be impugned. If the Supreme Court of the United States should be vested with the power of determining what party should be in authority for four years, the members of that court would have political power which would be dangerous.

He argued that the proposed amendment was a re-enactment of the 12th Article of the Amendments to the Constitution with three changes, which were: 1st, That Electors shall vote viva voce instead of by ballot; 2d, the transfer of the count of the Electoral vote to the Supreme Court; 3d, making a Supreme Court Judge ineligible for the office of President or Vice-President until the expiration of two years next after he shall have ceased to be such Justice.

The proposition left the Electoral College standing with all its abuses. The people of the United States were opposed to the institution, as it was full of danger and trouble, some of which was at the very doors of Congress to-day. This Electoral College was the rock in the channel upon which the country is more likely to split than any other. Mr. Morton then quoted at length from a report which he made to the Senate two years ago from the Committee of Privileges and Elections, to show he opposed the Electoral College then and said he did not believe the people of this country would ratify their proposed amendment with the Electoral College provision standing.

Mr. Edmunds, in reply to a question of Merrimon, said all members of the Committee of the Judiciary were of the opinion that it would be better to have Electors vote viva voce than by ballots, as the action of the chosen agents of the people should be public so all might know if such agent fulfilled the trust confided to him or betrayed it.

Mr. Merrimon gave notice of an amendment he would offer so as to make any Justice of the Supreme Court ineligible to any office under the United States, and also ineligible to be elected President until the expiration of four years next after he shall have ceased to be such Justice. Ordered printed.

The matter was further discussed until the Senate adjourned.

House.

In the House the following bills were introduced and referred: To provide judicial remedies for overcharge of duties on tonnage and imports; reducing letter postage to two cents; to regulate compensation of letter carriers in cities of over 100,000 population; for the purchase of silver bullion and its coinage in dollars, which are to be legal tenders for all debts, public and private, including duties and coin interest.

A Bill to give Revolution a Fair Start.

By Mr. Glover of Mo.—Providing that the President shall employ the army and navy to protect States from domestic violence only after the Legislature of a State has certified to him that the authority of the State is forcibly resisted and is unable to overcome such resistance; or after the Governor has certified to him that riot, insurrection or overt acts of rebellion have occurred which such Governor has endeavored and is unable to suppress: and also that he has endeavored to convene the Legislature and that such Legislature cannot be convened by reason of such domestic violence.

Mr. Cox of N. Y., offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of five to proceed to the cities of New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and Jersey City to examine into any alleged fraudulent registration and fraudulent voting at the late election. Adopted without division.

Mr. Goode offered a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire and report on the legality of the circular letter issued by the Attorney General during the late Presidential campaign to U. S. Marshals in relation to their powers and duties in such election. Adopted without division.

The House at 3.15 adjourned, the Democrats remaining in the hall to hold a caucus.

Another Democratic Outrage.

VIOLATION OF PRIVATE RIGHTS.

The Confederate House Make a Sweeping Demand for the Private Telegrams of Republicans.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. A subpœna has been issued to the managers of the Western Union and Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph lines in New York and Washington to produce all the telegraphic correspondence between Republican leaders in the North and South, notably despatches sent and received by Secretary Chandler, and to present the same at noon to-morrow before the Investigating Committee, of which Morrison is Chairman.

[The outrageous character of this demand would seem to indicate that the Democratic leaders count upon a peremptory refusal by the Telegraph Companies to submit to such an unauthorized assault upon the rights of the people, and that thereupon they will assert that improper despatches have been sent. This infamous raid on Secretary Chandler will not frighten him one whit, and the demagogues who go out for fleece in such despicable fashion will come home shorn.—ED. WHIG.]

ATTEMPTED BRIBERY.

The Details of the South Carolian Attempt to be Made Public.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. The Times' South Carolina special says the details of the attempt to buy an Electoral vote for Tilden in that State will be given to the public soon. It will implicate a New York agent, who was there under an assumed name and also the President of a railroad there.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Vessel Ashore.

BOSTON, Dec. 11. The schooner Allen Green, Boston for Philadelphia, went ashore at Bass River Saturday afternoon, but lays easy and does not leak. She will probably get off after lightering a portion of the cargo. The schooner which went ashore at Harwichport was the Andrew Nevinger. She got off this forenoon.

NEW YORK CITY.

Testimony of a Brooklyn Victim.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. John Cumberson, the flagman injured at the Brooklyn fire, died at the hospital yesterday. Before dying he testified that if he had had a hose or some pails of water he could easily have put the fire out.

Tweed's Papers Unimportant.

Secretary Robeson says Tweed's papers are unimportant and do not consist of any of his statements for defense or confession.

WASHINGTON.

The Oregon Rascality to be Investigated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. The Senate Committee on Elections this morning, voted to recommend the adoption by the Senate of Mitchell's resolution directing the committee to investigate the facts attending the appointment of Presidential Electors in Oregon.

The Fraud will Not Avail.

There is absorbing interest felt in the Oregon Electoral case; but prominent friends of the administration are confident that the election will not turn upon the points involved.

The Democratic Caucus

has appointed Senators Thurman, Bayard, Bogy, Kernan and Eaton on the joint committee to consider measures of adjusting controversies about the Presidential election.

LOUISIANA.

The House Committee.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 11. The House Investigating Committee have arrived with the exception of two members. It is reported that the United States troops have been ordered away.

Democratic Reports.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. A New Orleans special to the World says the Chairman of the Democratic State Committee publishes a flat denial of the charges made against the Committee by Sherman, Garfield, and others. It is intimated that Gov. Kellogg will not issue the commissions of the lately elected City Judges, but when the Republican Legislature meets the courts will be abolished and new ones created, the judges of which will be appointed by the Governor.

It is probable that no Democrats will go into the Returning Board Legislature, but that a separate Legislature will be organized and Democratic candidates for State offices be inaugurated by this body.

The Democratic Figures.

A New Orleans special to the Graphic says the Democratic committee has promulgated election returns according to their figures, giving a tie in the House and six Democratic majority in the Senate. It is said that six Democrats in the House will act with the Republicans in case of an organization of a dual government which is now intended.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

Three miners sleeping in a small building at the mouth of a coal shaft in Calhoun county, Mo., were burned to death with the building Saturday night.

An oyster schooner was wrecked in Anapolis Roads Sunday, and eleven men are reported lost.

A Baltimore despatch says 200 houses were unroofed in that city and suburbs in the recent gale.

The aggregate losses by the Burlington, N. J., fire, will be from $60,000 to $100,000. About one-fourth insured.

A cable despatch from Dresden says that twenty-five miners were killed Saturday night by an explosion in a colliery at Windberg.

Mayor-elect Ely, of New York, has resigned from Congress and a special election is ordered.

The letter of the Democrats who visited New Orleans, to Abram S. Hewitt, makes a seventeen-page pamphlet. They admit that the evidence on both sides discloses a state of lawlessness in certain parishes, but assail the action of the Returning Board with great bitterness and employ rather inflammatory language.

MORE RIFLE-CLUB RAIDING.

Very Suspicious Despatches.

HINTS OF ANOTHER HAMBURG.

Colored Men Seized by Rifle Clubs.

THE USUAL PRETEXT OF A NEGRO PLOT.

Pretext for Rifle Club Raiding—Indications of another Hamburg Massacre.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 10. The N. Y. Tribune's special says: For some days there have been rumors of a negro conspiracy in the neighborhood of Lowndesville, on the Georgia side of Abbeville County. On the 5th inst. two men were shot at from the roadside, it is said, by negroes. Eight Rifle Clubs were at once aroused and the whole country thoroughly raided. Many white men were arrested. One lot of ten colored prisoners while on the way to jail were shot dead. The greatest terror exists throughout the country. It looks very much like another Hamburg affair.

A Despatch from the Charleston Rebel Newspaper Office—An obvious Palliation of a Massacre of Negroes—The usual preliminary charge of a Negro Plot.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11. The following is the Associated Press report of the alleged South Carolina massacre:

CHARLESTON, Dec. 11. Sixteen negroes were arrested in Abbeville County charged with the murder of two white men whom they ambushed and shot near Lowndesville on Monday. Six of the negroes made a full confession implicating their fellow prisoners and divulging a plot for the murder of the white men of the village and the capture of the women. Twenty of them were in the conspiracy and they had begun the butchery by slaughtering the two white men.

Thirteen Colored Men in the hands of Rifle Clubs.

Of the sixteen arrested, thirteen were started from Lowndesville to Anderson, the intention being to send them from Anderson to Abbeville by railroad. This round about course was adopted to avoid lynching by men who were said to be on the direct road from Lowndesville to Abbeville. The prisoners started for Anderson on Saturday under a strong guard, but up to last evening had not been heard from.

A mild intimation of a cold-blooded Massacre.

It is rumored that they have been intercepted and lynched by a party from Georgia; but no confirmation of the report has reached Charleston. Two of the prisoners had been hurt when captured, and the party may have stopped on the road to ease the wounded, especially as the weather has been so cold.

The Troops to Remain.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11. The Government up to noon to-day was without any official intelligence from South Carolina. The Senators of that State say they entertain no further apprehension of disorder while the troops remain in the State, and that they will remain until all probabilities of an outbreak are over is assured.

A Rifle Club Captain's Despatch—He says the Prisoners are Safe.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 11. Positive information is received that the Lowndesville murderers were not lynched as reported. The prisoners were taken from Lowndesville to Anderson, Friday night, and removed thence to Walhalla, Oconee county, as a precaution against violence, owing to threats made by the people.

More about the Customary "Negro Plot."

The investigation discloses that the plot to murder whites indiscriminately was horrible, which aroused the excitement among the whites to the extent of threatening summary punishment. The precaution taken averted this and everything is now quiet. One of the captured murderers took laudanum and died. The prisoners are now all safe in Walhalla jail.

THE COTTON CROP.

Reports in South Carolina

CHARLESTON, Dec. 11. The November report of the Charleston Exchange on the South Carolina cotton crop, based on fifty replies from 25 counties, says the weather is more favorable than in the same month last year. The crop of the State may be regarded as gathered. Average replies show decreased yield in 25 counties heard from of sixteen per cent. compared with last year.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., Dec. 12. (1 A. M.)

Probabilities

For New England: Snow will prevail with increasing Northeast winds, veering to southerly and southwesterly, slowly rising temperature and falling barometer.

FOREIGN NEWS.

INDIA.

More Cheerful Reports.

LONDON, Dec. 11. A Calcutta despatch says the prospects in India are not so gloomy in a majority of the famine-threatened districts. There will probably be no difficulty in keeping up supplies of grain in Bombay, and it is possible there will be no cause of actual want in Shalapyre.

NOVA SCOTIA.

The Gale and Cold Weather.

HALIFAX, Dec. 11. The steamer Austrian from Baltimore arrived last night, reports a strong gale Saturday night. The sea broke over her, going clear over the bridge, smashing the chart room under it and a boat on the starboard side. No person was hurt. The mail boats due from Liverpool and Portland were not reported at 11 P. M., last night. Sunday was the coldest day this season. Sleighing good.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Now where are your skates?

Snow commenced falling at 2 o'clock this morning.

There are still four vessels due at this port with freights.

At 5:30 yesterday morning the mercury stood at 5° below 0.

There will be a sociable at the Central Church this evening.

There will be a social assembly at Music Hall Thursday evening next.

The Maine State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, meets at Waterville to-day.

The mortuary record shows that five deaths have occurred during the past week.

There will be a levee and oyster supper at the vestry of the Pine Street Methodist church this evening.

Yesterday afternoon boys were trying their skates on the river opposite the E. & N. A. Railway bridge.

The second Matinee at Andrews' Academy yesterday was a very pleasant affair. These dances are becoming very popular.

The Crusade hold their annual levee one week from to-day. The proceeds are to be used for helping the poor through the cold winter.

The members of the Second Baptist Church and Society hold a sociable in the vestry of the Columbia street church this evening.

The snow-plow used for clearing the sidewalks should be more carefully handled, as several complaints have been made that shade trees have been injured by it.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union meet this afternoon in the Union Room over Haynes and Pillsbury's store, Broad street. Prayer meeting at half past four.

The Rhetorical Society will hold a public meeting at the chapel of the Seminary this evening at seven o'clock. The friends of the Seminary are cordially invited to be present.

Holiday goods are making their appearance, and the first to say anything about them are Bugbee & Co., Charles Hight N. S. Harlow and Durgin, of the Bazaar.—See their advertisements.

A correspondent writes that about half past six Sunday morning last, fire was discovered in the "new mill" at the Basin Mills. The alarm was given promptly and it was soon extinguished. Undoubtedly caused by a lamp which had been used the day before to heat a dish of black oil, used for lubricating purposes.

We learn from Mr. Fickett that the Penobscot was open to navigation April 13th, and from that date to Saturday, December 9th, one thousand one hundred and nineteen vessels came into Kenduskeag stream through the draw of the E. & N. A. Railway bridge. Among the number were one barque, four brigs, three three-masted schooners, six steamers and one steam launch.

The new rooms arranged for the Collector and his assistants in the south end of the Custom House building, are now ready for use and the moving in began yesterday, but was not completed. The rooms are very conveniently arranged, neatly frescoed by Schumaker, of Portland, and altogether are far better adapted to the needs of the department than those formerly occupied.

THE UNIVERSALISTS' SOCIABLE at Music Hall last evening was largely attended and one of the very pleasant occasions of the season. The floor was occupied by dancers whose feet tripped merrily to the music furnished by Messrs. Peakes, Crombie and Jones. At intermission, refreshments were served by Johnson Brothers and after ample justice had been done to the products of the caterers, dancing was resumed. The affair was thoroughly enjoyable in every particular.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE. It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Prof. Foster, of Fredericton, N. B., is to deliver a second temperance lecture in this city. Mr. Foster is a brilliant lecturer, whose reputation is by no means confined to the United States, and he will be greeted by a good house, as all who heard his able lecture last September were delighted with him. The price of admission is in accordance with the present era of low prices which will enable all who love the cause to hear him.

THE HANDELS. The second rehearsal of the Handel Association occurred last evening and was very fully attended and much interest manifested. The attendance thus far is fully one third larger than at the opening sessions of any previous year. After an hour spent in rehearsal the following programme was presented for the "social hour:" Piano Solo, by Miss Addie Drew, Fantasia from Lucretia Borgia; Song by Miss Bella Bartlett, "Mist of the Morning; Violin Duett by Messrs. McQuown and Andrews, "Movement from DeBeriot"; Song by Mr. W. J. Patten, "Sweetheart." Song by Miss Osgood, "Longing." All the selections were given with much taste, and to the great satisfaction of the large audience.

THE COFFEE PARTY. In another column may be found the advertisement of the first of a series of coffee parties to be given by the Ladies' Benevolent Society of the Unitarian church, which takes place to-night, and a very pleasant evening may be expected. The entire upper floor of Hatch's new block, embracing Andrews' hall and that of the Art Club, will be thrown open with music and dancing in both, giving ample room for all. The dancing as well as the refreshments of cake, coffee and sandwiches are included in the price of admission. The popularity of these parties last winter warrants the belief that this series will prove equally successful and some novel features will probably be introduced in the future.

BOILER EXPLOSION. At a quarter of seven o'clock yesterday morning the steam boiler in Files & Jones's bakery, Pickering Square, exploded, throwing bricks and rubbish in all directions, some of the bricks going nearly across the street, but luckily injuring no one. The boiler was one of Sullivan's old pattern, twenty horse power and had stood a test indicating perfect safety under one hundred and twenty pounds steam pressure. At the time of the explosion there were sixty pounds pressure on as shown by the steam guage, and the water guage showed that there was no lack in that direction. Just before the explosion all the men had left that part of the building except Mr. Files' son who was ascending the stairs, and had a narrow escape from serious injury. The damage to the building and goods in the store will be about one thousand dollars. The proprietors think that the pressure on the boiler, it being in the form of a large surmounded by a smaller cylinder, sprung the sides so as to tear them away from the heads. They intend to put in one of Mr. Sullivan's new pattern boilers as soon as possible. Meanwhile they will carry on business as usual.

The closing of the Penobscot.

We give below a table showing the opening and closing of this port to navigation since the year 1818. By a comparison of the figures it will be seen that the harbor has been open the present season a period of two hundred and forty-one days, or fifteen days longer than the previous year. It practically closed Sunday night, the last vessels leaving in the tow on the morning of that day:

TRUE ECONOMY is not in buying the lowest price articles. The best is cheapest. So with the fine cultivated and plantation grown spices imported by Messrs. Pinckney, Jackson & Co., of London and New York. I have just received a shipment of these goods and would specially invite the attention of all consumers to them. These spices are not only absolutely pure, but are without a doubt the finest ever imported into this country. I confidently recommend them as being really of unusual merit.

SAFE—SPEEDY—SURE.

The rapidity and certainty with which Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Horehound cures diseases of the respiratory Organs and its reliability as a remedy for consumption long ago secured for it a foremost rank among medicines of its class. It is in fact THE recognized specific for throat and bronchial disorders. It promptly checks a cough, no matter of how long standing, and affords great relief in cases of asthma. It should not be mistaken for a palliation, since it not only affords immediate relief, but also removes all traces of the malady. It is a specific for croup. Trial size 10 cents. Large sizes 50 cents and One Dollar.

Sold by Wm. E. Mann, J. F. Patten, N. S. Harlow, Bangor. R. B. Stover, Bucksport. Also Agents for Prof. Parker's Pleasant Worm Syrup, which never fails. Pleasant to take, and requires no physic. Price 25 cts. 1m dec2

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS

Will be found to possess those qualities necessary to the total eradication of all bilious attacks, prompt to start the secretions of the liver, and give a healthy tone to the entire system. Indeed, it is no ordinary discovery in medical science to have invented a remedy for these stubborn complaints, which develop all the results produced by a heretofore free use of calomel, a mineral justly dreaded by mankind, and acknowledged to be destructive in the extreme to the human system. That the properties of certain vegetables comprise all the virtues of calomel without its injurious tendencies, is now an admitted fact, rendered indisputable by scientific researches; and those who use the Mandrake Pills will be fully satisfied that the best medicines are those provided by nature in the common herbs and roots of the fields.

These pills open the bowels and correct all bilious derangements without salivation or any of the injurious effects of calomel or other poisons. The secretion of bile is promoted by these pills, as will be seen by the altered color of the stools, and disappearing of the sallow complexion and cleansing of the tongue.

Ample directions for use accompany each box of pills.

Prepared only by J. H. Schenck & Son, at their principal office, corner Sixth and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, and for sale by all druggists and dealers. Price 25 cts. per box. eodlmo dec2

Invigorate and be Healthy.

The source of nine tenths of the bodily ills of mankind is a deficiency of vital power. No portion of the physical machinery can efficiently perform its allotted duty if there is insufficient motive force in the system. Invigorate, therefore, in order to regain health. For the restoration of lost vitality, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are the best tonic that can be selected, since they not only impart fresh vigor into the debilitated system, but overcome disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels which interfere with complete assimilation of the food, and thus perpetuate weakness. The Bitters likewise cure and prevent malarious fevers, remedy debilitating urinary troubles, and eliminate from the blood through the kidneys the impurities which originate gout, rheumatism and dropsy. Appetite, digestion, sleep,—in short, every essential condition of health, are promoted by their use. nov11

SWORN STATEMENT

OF A

BOSTON DRUGGIST.

Gentlemen,—I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temple, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pain across the chest, and every indication of consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me, at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucus from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly,—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death [illegible]. When matters had reached this [illegible] about six months ago, I began the use of [illegible] RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After [illegible] first bottle I began to improve rapidly. [illegible] seemed to clear my head as I had [illegible] for years. It seemed gradually [illegible] the discharges. It stopped my cough in [illegible]. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced [illegible] the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so [illegible] ceased to trouble me. The soreness [illegible] chest disappeared, the buzzing noises ceased, my senses of hearing and [illegible] completely restored, and every symptom [illegible] that had reduced me to the verge of [illegible] disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S [illegible] CURE FOR CATARRH.

[illegible] been thus explicit because, as a druggist, [illegible] a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, [illegible] to convince many that this is a great [illegible] that with the treatment of Catarrh as [illegible] the best physicians, and have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have [illegible] kind of remedy and apparatus that [illegible] during a period of six years past, while following their use, taken great [illegible] general health, but obtained no relief [illegible] any of them [illegible] using myself with SANFORD'S RADICAL [illegible] recommended it in over one hundred [illegible] and not a single case of failure, and have in [illegible] instances received wholesale orders [illegible] to whom I have sold one bottle. This [illegible] patent medicine I have ever recommended, never having believed in them before, although constantly engaged in their sale.

Very gratefully yours,

ADDITIONAL STATEMENT.

Since the above statement was made I have been rapidly improving in health I have had no return of the disagreeable symptoms that attended my former sickness, and although affected from time to time with severe colds incidental to the sudden changes of our climate, they have not been sufficient to bring on a return of the disease. My general health has been excellent. I have gained twenty five pounds and consider myself entirely recovered from a disease that a year ago seemed likely to totally undermine my constitution. Since last February I have consulted with a great many afflicted with Catarrh, and in the hundreds of cases in which I have sold it I have never seen an instance sufficient to shake the confidence I feel in Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh.

THANKSGIVING HYMN—1876.

BY MARY B DODGE

[Set to music by John Zundel, Organist of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn.]

For zephyr, tempest, sunshine, rain,
And all the elemental host
Of blessings, tho' disguised as pain,
And for the pain, it may be, most,
We thank Thee, Father, once again

Upon this new Thanksgiving Day,
We consecrate afresh to Thee
Our gifts, and on thine altar lay
The fragrant fruit of liberty,
Whose purple clusters arch our way.

The increase came from Thee alone,
And though we plant and water still,
Thou only, Thou, Almighty One
The cup of our desire canst fill,
In Wisdom's freer, purer Sun.

O shrive us of each gathered sin—
Those tares upspringing 'mid our wheat—
And let Thy beauty pierce within
Our shadowy copses, and Thy feet
Restore the ground where wrong has been

Let Right grow great a hundred fold,
Whose seed a century since upbore,
Let root and branch more strong, more bold,
Spread healing leaves a larger store
And let their virtue long be told

As told until a fickle fate
Her sceptre shall lay gladly down
And poor with rich made equal mate
Wear smilingly the self same crown,
And joy be every man's estate

For such sweet hope, beyond the good
Already ours, we thank Thee, Lord,
And thankful are that unsubdued
Whilst sore beset has been Thy Word,
Our faith has each new foe withstood.

But speech may scarce avail to pour
To Thee the worship of our hearts,
Whose incense breaks from shore to shore
In nature's triumphs, and in Art's,
Taught of Thy spirit to adore

And since unmeet a single tongue
To voice Thee on our Day of days,
O bid that day to shine among
Whatever lives to laud Thy Ways,
An I praise be so forever sung

VILLAGE INFORMALS

Early in the season—say in November—the owner of a cosy little home sent a note to families embracing thirty or forty of his friends—no more than his double rooms would seat comfortably—stating that he should be at home Friday evenings during the winter from seven to eleven, and should be glad to have them come when they pleased, do as they pleased, and go when they pleased. They were requested to come in without ringing and soon learned to dispose of their wrappings and themselves without troubling any one. The rooms were brightly lighted, well warmed, and as much ventilated as our brainless system of house building would admit of. There were tables for those who wished to play cards or other games, an open piano and music for the musically-inclined, books magazines and papers strewn about, easy chairs around the fire for story tellers or visitors. No refreshments" were served, but in one corner was a table with apples and popped corn, or walnuts and raisins, candy—or, on especially cold nights, an urn of coffee and a plate of doughnuts—to which all were invited to help themselves, or others, as they wanted. Husbands, wives or young people, came alone or together as was convenient; stayed according to their pleasure, did as they wished, and went, as they came, without more ceremony than a cheery "good night." The meetings were called "Informals," and whether the number in attendance were ten or forty made no difference, for there was no expense or special trouble of preparation. It was proposed to have them rotate, but the objection was held valid that by so doing, there would always be with some an uncertainty as to the place of meeting, rivalries in entertainment would creep in, dressing up would come to be thought essential, and so the characteristic charm of the gatherings be dispelled. They therefore continued as they began, and were efficient in killing off, for those concerned, at least, the old stand up parties on one side and preventing a social stagnation on the other.—Home Journal

There was a Sunday school celebration not long ago and the minister made a speech to the children in which he endeavored to teach the nature of faith. So he told them the following story by way of illustration

In the deepening twilight of a summer's evening a pastor called at the residence of one of his parishioners and found seated in the doorway a little boy, with hands extended upward holding a line

"What are you doing my little friend inquired the minister

"Flying my kite," was the prompt reply

"Flying your kite" exclaimed the pastor "I can see no kite—you can see none"

"I cannot see it but I know it is there for I feel it pull

The children were all deeply interested and the clergyman continued

Now a few days after this the mother of the little boy was about to die, and she said to him

My son when I am an angel I will come from Heaven and be with you and shield you from harm and watch to see that you grow up a good man. Will you try to think, sometimes that I am at your side?

And the little boy said he would

Now my dear children," said the minister "when that blessed angel came back from Heaven and hovered over her child, and put forth her hand among the fair golden hair how did he know that she was there, for he could not see her?"

"Why he felt her pull, of course?" roared the class in unison, with the promptness of absolute certainty

The speaker sat down all of a sudden, and the exercises concluded

HAD BEEN THERE —As a pale-faced hollow eyed man was walking along Woodward avenue using a cane to support his feeble steps a pedestrian hailed him, reached out a hand and said

"Why Tom, is this you?"

Yes it's me, was the mournful reply

And what's the matter

I'm all run down, and I've lost my place

"Lost it! How? Been discharged?"

Yes, sadly replied the poor man "I'm looking for a job now."

I know of a coal dealer who wants a driver suggested the friend

No good—no good " with a mournful shake of the head "I've been to two or three and as soon as they found that my weight was down to one hundred and twenty pounds they turned right away from me. Coal is down, you know, and they have to make it up in the weight of the driver —Detroit Free Press

"Mamma where do cows get the milk?" asked Willie looking up from the foaming pan of milk, which he had been intently regarding. "Where do you get your tears?" was the answer. After a thoughtful silence he again broke out "Do cows have to be spanked?"

My son said an old man, beware of prejudices they are like rats, men's minds are like traps prejudices creep in easily, but it is doubtful if they ever get out

At bed time now, after the little Philadelphia boy has said his "Now I lay me," he adds in a truly thankful spirit "Ma, ain't I glad I don't have to sleep out in the sand any more"

We have lost a great deal by our religion a woman said to her husband "Yes," replied her husband "You lost a bad temper, and I lost a bad habit of drinking and a ragged coat"

When a man composes himself for a nap in a railroad car, and draws his hat over his face, nothing "riles" him more than for some woman to accidentally set her baby down on it —Ex

LETTER CARRIERS

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes

Collections are made morning and evening in season for important mails—the down town boxes fifteen and the up town boxes thirty minutes before closing mails at the office.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A M and from 8½ to 9 P M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A M

Any irregularities in the Carriers department should be reported to the office

ENVELOPES

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window,) when ordered in lots of not less than 500

A request for the return of a letter to the writer if unclaimed within thirty days, or less written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with

☞ The public are earnestly recommended to procure Stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $32 80 per thousand

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes

cannot be used to prepay postage. The use of such Stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars. Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office

DOMESTIC POSTAGE

All Letters must be Prepaid—Letters for the Mails in the United States, three cents for half ounce or single rate. City letters, two cents half ounce or single rate.

NEWSPAPERS

After January 1st, 1876, all regular newspapers must be prepaid at the office of publication at the rate of two cents per pound for each issue on weekly papers or those published oftener than once a week. Less frequently than once a week, three cents. The same law applies to dealers.

County papers free, except to letter carrier offices. The papers coming to this office if published in County, are subject to postage. Daily papers published in County, if delivered by carrier, one cent each, to be prepaid by stamps.

Postage to Canada.—Same as in the States on letters and papers, pre payment compulsory, merchandise limited to 8 oz, postage 10 cents

TRANSIENT PRINTED MATTER AND BOOKS AND MERCHANDISE.

Transient newspapers and magazines, regular publications designed primarily for advertising purposes or for free circulation at nominal rates and all printed matter of the third class except unsealed circulars, shall be admitted to, and be transmitted in, the mails at the rate of one cent for every two ounces or fractional part thereof, and one cent for each two additional ounces or fractional part thereof, and the sender of any article of the third class of mail matter may write his or her name or address therein, or on the outside thereof with the word "from" above or preceding the same or may write briefly or print on any package the number and names of the articles enclosed. Publishers of newspapers and periodicals may print on the wrappers of newspapers or magazines sent from the office of publication to regular subscribers the time to which subscription therefor has been paid, and addresses upon postal cards and unsealed circulars may be either written printed, or affixed thereto, at the option of the sender

On unsealed circulars, merchandise and all mailable matter of the third class other than that designated in the aforegoing section, postage will be charged as heretofore, one cent for each ounce or fraction thereof

ADVERTISED LETTERS

All letters remaining in the office are advertised on Monday of each week. If not claimed in one month thereafter, they are then forwarded to Washington

MONEY ORDERS

Especial attention is called to the Money Order system, as a safe and cheap method of transmitting small sums through the mails. Orders are issued in sums of not more than fifty dollars. Larger amounts can be transmitted to the same person, at the same time by additional orders

RATES

On orders not exceeding $15,	10 cents
" over $15 and not exceeding $30,	15 cents
" over $30 and not exceeding $40	20 cents
" over $40 and not exceeding $50,	25 cents

Money Orders can also be obtained on England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Switzerland and German States

Never put Money in a Letter—Always Procure a Money Order

If money is to be remitted, a Postal Money Order should be obtained. If upon points where there is no Money Order Office, then the letter should be Registered. Money should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter

Office Hours—From 8 A M to 6 P M

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT

C A BOUTELLE EDITOR

In issuing the Forty third annual Prospectus of these standard newspapers, the Proprietors confidently appeal to the record of nearly half a century as affording the best promise of the future while they will continue to spare no effort in maintaining and advancing their high character as

The Leading Journals of Eastern Maine.

Having thoroughly refitted our establishment, we have organized an efficient Editorial Reportorial and Correspondence corps and with facilities at our command hope to make our journals still more interesting during the coming year which will be

CROWDED WITH EVENTS

OF A NATIONAL CHARACTER.

Our connection with the Associated Press, from which we receive all the dispatches by night and day, enables us to present in each issue

The Latest Telegraphic News from All Parts of the World.

In addition we shall be served by Special Correspondents at important points, and shall furnish

Full Reports of
Local, Domestic and Foreign News,
Proceedings of Congress,
Of State Legislature,
Financial and Commercial,
Home Produce Markets
Editorial Articles, Agricultural News
Manufacturing Intelligence,
Selected Stories,
Choice Poetry,
Entertaining Miscellany

And all the important and interesting features which make up a

First Class Family Newspaper

In politics the papers will continue to advocate and uphold the principles of the Republican party while claiming to be independent, in the highest and best sense of the word. Fearless and outspoken in the statement of all [illegible] they will avoid intolerance and make their appeals to the understanding rather than to prejudice. The year about to open will be [illegible] important [illegible] the future of our country [illegible] will be [illegible] the

GREAT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

OF THE

Centennial Year.

The celebrations of the Hundredth Anniversary of our National Independence will also be conducted upon a magnificent scale and the public will wish to be kept fully informed of the progress of those events. It will be our aim to afford our readers the earliest and most reliable information and to favor only such measures and policy as will best promote the welfare of all the people.

HOME INTERESTS

as affected by the development of the resources of Maine, will receive special attention, and whatever is calculated to stimulate or benefit

Agriculture and Manufactures in the State will be heartily encouraged. We rigidly exclude from our columns everything of an immoral tendency avoid sensational matter and seek to make a thoroughly reliable paper which will be sure of

A Welcome in Every Family Circle.

To advertisers our columns open one of the best fields in New England, our circulation being the largest of any paper in this section, among the best classes of the people, and as

THE ONLY MORNING DAILY

East of the Kennebec,

our Daily issue affords the principal medium of communication with a large and constantly increasing number of readers throughout Central and Eastern Maine.

OUR WEEKLY

is also the largest and best Weekly Newspaper in the State. Every number accompanied by a two-page Supplement, making a paper of FORTY EIGHT columns, or one half larger than any other Weekly. It is a standard publication with large and constantly increasing circulation among the most intelligent and thrifty of the population of Eastern Maine, and the small space devoted to advertising is eagerly sought by the best class of patrons.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE For 1876.

TERMS—Invariably in Advance:

Daily—$8 per annum; $4 for 6 mos., $2 for 3 mos.
Weekly—$2 per annum, $1 for 6 mos, 50c 3 mos

The new postal law compelling prepayment of postage, imposes a heavy burden on the publishers but we have decided to make no advance upon our established subscription price, and will send the paper

POSTAGE FREE,

Making a saving of $1 20 per annum for each of our Daily, and 20 cents per annum to each of our Weekly subscribers.

FRANKLIN HOUSE,

Harlow Street, - Bangor, Maine.

GEORGE F. HILL, Prop'r

This spacious and popular Hotel has been thoroughly renovated by the present proprietor. Several of the choice rooms have been refurnished, and all the appointments of the house are now first class. The Holly Water has been introduced, and the establishment is heated by steam. These improvements make the house thoroughly comfortable, cheerful and pleasant.

The location of the FRANKLIN HOUSE is one of the most agreeable, healthy and central in the city. It is within one minute's walk of the Post Office, Custom House and Norombega Hall and convenient to all the business parts of the city.

Mr. ROYAL QUIMBY, the old and popular Clerk of the house, will continue to discharge the duties of that position.

With these advantages the proprietor flatters himself that he will be enabled fully to satisfy the expectations of the old patrons of the house and make it a desirable resort for the travelling public. The table will be made second to that of no other hotel in Maine
